

Communique Mission, Vision and Publishing Guidelines

MISSION

Capture and share the stories of the UCCS community.

VISION

Be the primary source of campus news, wholly representative of our diverse community and its work to advance knowledge and broaden access for all.

PUBLISHING GUIDELINES

EVENTS

Communique will focus on post-event recap stories rather than pre-event promotion.

RETIREMENTS

Communique will prioritize stories for faculty/staff that have worked at UCCS for 30 or more years.

SEARCH COMMITTEES/NEW HIRES

Stories will be written on search committees for, and those hired to, the positions of Assistant Vice Chancellor, Provost, and/or Dean, with exceptions for distinctive programs.

RANKINGS/RECOGNITIONS

Communique will recognize the annual U.S. News and World Rankings, Military Friendly Recognitions, STARS rankings, and local rankings (CSBJ, Gazette, Independent).

FACULTY/STAFF/DEPARTMENTAL/ PROGRAM AWARDS

Communique will prioritize stories for faculty/staff/departments/programs that earned a finalist spot for any awards.

RESEARCH GRANTS/PUBLICATIONS

Every effort will be made to cover research grants and publications as the editorial calendar allows.
