ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY | San Diego, CA

SDSU, a flagship institution of the California State University system, is designated as an HSI and AANAPISI. The university has a student population of over 36,000 and nearly 6,000 faculty and staff. It offers 190 bachelor's, 91 masters, and 30 doctoral degrees. SDSU is a diverse, urban, internationally engaged university with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. (<https://www.sdsu.edu/>)

Dean (Interim), SDSU Global Campus

October 2021 – Present

SDSU Global Campus, the self-support professional and continuing education college, offers a wide variety of degrees, classes, seminars, and certificate programs for career advancement and self-enrichment available to individuals locally, regionally, and around the world, including 15 master's degrees, 7 undergraduate degree completion options, more than 50 certificate programs, online courses, English language programs, and many lifelong learning opportunities. (<https://ces.sdsu.edu/>)

Core responsibilities:

- Create a strategic plan to build a diverse portfolio of educational programs that is financially viable, pedagogically sound, and meets student needs and workforce trends
- Manage Global Campus's financial and physical assets ($30-40M), including achieving financial recovery after several years operating in deficit
- Build strong, positive, collaborative relationships with partners within SDSU, in the local community, across the CSU, and around the world
- Establish an organizational structure and policies to support and maintain a diverse, stable, effective, and efficient college of approximately 100 Global Campus staff in program development/management, international programs, student services, marketing, instructional design, finance, IT and operations within a unionized environment

- Create and foster a positive, collaborative, supportive, equitable, and inclusive environment
- Develop student recruitment and retention strategies with a cross-functional team from student services, marketing, international affairs, program development, and finance
- Support and contribute to the mission, strategic goals, and plans of SDSU and the CSU

Senior Associate Dean, College of Education

January 2019 - October 2021

SDSU's College of Education prepares more than 2,000 undergraduate, teaching credential, master's, and doctoral students each year in the education and helping professions. It is one of the region's top producers of high-quality teachers, counselors, therapists, school administrators, and community college leaders with 6 undergraduate majors/minors, 24 graduate programs, and 10 certificates. (<https://education.sdsu.edu/>)

Core responsibilities:

- Managed and implemented the College budgets and resources including instruction, operations, auxiliaries, facilities, technology, grants, contracts, and special funding
- In collaboration with Department Chairs/Directors, oversaw academic year and summer course schedules; established and applied strategies to meet enrollment targets; developed and implemented student recruitment and retention strategies
- Worked with Departments/School to maintain accreditations
- Advised and consulted with the Dean on matters pertaining to the governance of the College, including faculty recruitment, retention, reappointment, tenure, and promotion
- Maintained high-quality instructional standards throughout the College
- Supported research, scholarly, and creative activities for faculty and students
- Oversaw the faculty RTP process according to College and University policies
- Recruited, hired, supervised, and supported College staff members and ensured staff and faculty personnel processes were in accordance with University and College policies, the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and the priorities of the Dean
- Served as College liaison with various divisions across SDSU and CSU

Chair/Professor, Department of Child & Family Development

August 2017 – December 2019

The Department of Child & Family Development offers a B.S. in Child Development, M.S. degree in Child Development, and a graduate certificate in early childhood mental health. In addition, the department offers a M.S. in Child Development with a specialization in Early Childhood Mental Health that meets licensure requirements for students wishing to become Licensed Professional Clinical Counselors. (<https://education2.sdsu.edu/cfd>)
